PlanetRockrz Offers a Taste of their Upcoming Album with Lead Single "Where is the Love?" dropping July 13th Worldwide

Florida, Jul 10, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - The newest whizzkid in the alternative urban rock block, DAV (pronounced "Dave") from PlanetRockrz (www.PlanetRockrz.com) is set to create a global phenomenon with his upcoming album releasing on September 11th worldwide this year. The independent record label based in West Palm Beach, Florida, and Atlanta, Georgia, has decided to bestow the fans with a sneak peek of the debut album with the lead single "Where is the Love?" that is set to release on July 13th along with a video dropping a few days later. The much sought out production house is set to showcase their thematic charisma mastering the art of created commercial beats and sounds.

Aspiring to uplift the planet’s frequency through music, art, and consciousness, the West Palm Beach-based recording label plans to unravel their refreshingly original compositions in their cleverly strung album dropping on September 11th, 2020 at midnight. They executed the breathtaking collection of dynamic instrumental and acoustic magnificence, comprising of ten songs in just ten days. PlanetRockrz’s founder DAV explains how they mixed and mastered ten radio-hit tracks employing their raw passion and vigorous tenacity.. "It's crazy, we woke up on a Friday after purchasing some new music gear the day before and went on a rampage. 10 songs mixed and mastered in 10 days, the album is chock full of hit records. I know this is something special."

The single and the album both will be available on all major platforms like Spotify, Apple Music, TikTok, Facebook/Instagram, Tidal, and Deezer. For more information visit www.PlanetRockrz.com or socials at Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter

Media Contact

DAV / PlanetRockrz

PlanetRockrz@gmail.com

Source : PlanetRockrz

See on IssueWire