vRealm Chosen for Newchip’s Intensive Global Pre-Seed Accelerator Program

vRealm Tutoring was accepted into Newchip's renowned global accelerator program.

Reston, Virginia Feb 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - vRealm Tutoring - providing personalized virtual tutoring services to students all across the world, was accepted into Newchip’s renowned global accelerator program. Designed to provide all the skills and tools founders need to rapidly fund, build and scale their companies, past accelerator cohorts averaged more than 17.5 times the average funding amount. The equity-free, fully digital accelerator has helped over 1,500 founders from more than 50 countries and 250 cities raise over $450 million in funding with an estimated portfolio of over $9B.

“Newchip evaluates a diverse number of companies across all industries from around the world, selecting a small percentage to join our accelerator,” says Armando Vera Carvajal, Vice President of Product at Newchip. “This strict selection process makes us an ideal partner for investors looking for promising start-ups. Tutoring companies like vRealm can scale quickly with proper funding and guidance. We are excited about vRealm and believe they will do well at Newchip.”

“Being accepted into the Newchip Accelerator, we are excited to build a strongly motivated team, which will take our company to the next level, says Ali Aldubaisi, CEO and Founder of vRealm. We want to build the most student-centered team to help each individual reach their full academic potential.
