Franklin, Louisiana Dec 30, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Kingship Hip Hop proudly announces the release of an exclusive podcast interview featuring Hot Boy Turk, hosted by Sarah J. Preston — CEO of Kingship Hip Hop, Editor-in-Chief of Kingship Hip Hop Magazine, and author of the novel The Hifian Upload.

The conversation delivers rare clarity, humor, and cultural volume as Turk openly addressed long-standing speculation surrounding his relationship with Birdman of Cash Money Records. In his own words, Turk stated, "It ain't no beef, we all grew apart." His honesty brought refreshing transparency to a topic fans have debated for years.

At one point in the interview, Turk jokingly said "Sarah is lyin'," which Sarah playfully interpreted as "Sarah is a lion." She used the moment to highlight her signature abstract lion artwork from Hifi Art Express, her independent art collection inspired by The Hifian Upload and the LP of Blake and Sophia. The exchange added personality, humor, and artistic smoothness to the interview.

Sarah further clarified Turk's comments about Birdman, saying, "It's like a brother or father beef, family doesn't always get along, I've been through that" and expressed excitement about the possibility of another collaboration with Lil Wayne, similar to their past iconic work.

Turk also promoted his new album, "JOSEPH DELUXE PT 2," released on December 25th, 2025, showcasing his continued evolution and storytelling.

The full podcast interview and Kingship Hip Hop magazine cover of Turk is available now at kingshiphiphop.com, with video clips posted at instagram.com/kingshiphiphop2842 see his music promotion on "JOSEPH DELUXE PT 2" and updates at instagram.com/originalhotboyturk
