Classica Bella Embraces the Christmas Spirit in Support of Milwaukee Ballet's The Nutcracker and A Christmas Carol

Milwaukee, Wisconsin Nov 28, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Classica Bella Embraces the Christmas Spirit in Support of Milwaukee Ballet's The Nutcracker and A Christmas Carol at the Pabst Theater MILWAUKEE — Classica Bella, the Italian women's luxury handbag house celebrated for its Milanese leather craftsmanship, is proud to support two beloved holiday traditions this season: Milwaukee Ballet's The Nutcracker and A Christmas Carol at the historic Pabst Theater.

As families across Milwaukee gather for the timeless magic of these performances, Classica Bella draws a parallel between the enduring rituals of Christmas and the centuries-old traditions of Italian artisanship. Just as holiday stories are passed down through generations, each Classica Bella handbag is the product of meticulous handwork by skilled craftsmen in Italy—where fine leathers are selected, cut, and finished according to techniques refined over generations in the workshops of Milan and beyond.

"We support all the arts in Milwaukee and throughout the world, especially at Christmas time! We believe in the rich traditions shared by so many," said Mark Hamley, CEO of Classica Bella. "Whether it's the elegance of a classic ballet, the warmth of a Dickens tale, or the quiet beauty of a handcrafted Italian leather bag, these traditions remind us what endures. "The brand's support underscores its commitment to cultural life in Milwaukee while celebrating the shared values of craftsmanship, beauty, and heritage that connect Italian design with the spirit of the season.
