KINGSHIP HIP HOP ON LOCATION + CASH MONEY MEMBER UPDATES

Cincinnati, Ohio Nov 24, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Kingship Hip Hop Media takes its presence from the concert floor to the magazine cover as CEO and Editor-in-Chief Sarah J Preston, professionally known as SJP IN CHIEF, announces the latest edition of Kingship Hip Hop Media Magazine, featuring original concert photography from the historic Cash Money Records and No Limit Tour.

On November 14, 2026, Kingship Hip Hop was on location at Heritage Bank Center in Cincinnati, Ohio, capturing the energy, performances, and legacy of two influential names in hip-hop: Cash Money Records and No Limit Records. The new magazine front cover features Birdman and B.G., showcasing original concert photography captured by Kingship Hip Hop during the event.

This edition represents another milestone for Sarah J Preston and the Kingship Hip Hop editorial platform, bringing live hip-hop experiences directly to readers through photography, artist features, concert coverage, and independent music journalism.

KINGSHIP EXPANDS INTO LIVE ENTERTAINMENT AND BOOK-BASED PERFORMANCES

This month, Kingship Hip Hop also announces an exciting expansion into live entertainment with a new performance initiative inspired by original literary works from Hifi Art Express.

The upcoming Kingship performances will bring two featured book projects to the stage:

- THE LP OF BLAKE AND SOPHIA
- LOVE & KINGSHIP

Both literary projects are available for purchase through Barnes & Noble online, bringing original storytelling into a new entertainment experience combining literature, hip-hop, music, and live performance.

Leading the Kingship performance initiative is SJP IN CHIEF, alongside Rapper LAMBO , with additional performances and appearances from emerging hip-hop artists Clappa Da Rasta and other developing talent featured on the Kingship Hip Hop performer roster.

The vision is to create a platform where independent artists, authors, performers, and entertainment professionals can share their work through live events, original productions, and multimedia exposure.

KINGSHIP HIP HOP SPOTLIGHTS HIP-HOP LEGACY AND EMERGING TALENT

Kingship Hip Hop continues expanding its editorial coverage with features and articles highlighting established hip-hop artists, legendary record-label figures, and the next generation of performers.

Featured editorial coverage includes:

- Silkk Tha Shocker
- Mia X
- Birdman

- Master P
- B.G.
- Mr. Serv-On
- Bag Baby Milli, son of Mystikal

From Cash Money and No Limit's influential musical history to the developing talent carrying hip-hop forward, Kingship Hip Hop is documenting the artists, performances, and stories that continue shaping the culture.

The inclusion of Bag Baby Milli also reflects the magazine's interest in emerging performers connected to established hip-hop legacies and the next generation of musical talent.

A GROWING MULTIMEDIA PLATFORM

Under the leadership of Sarah J Preston, Kingship Hip Hop Media continues building its identity as an independent hip-hop magazine, promotional platform, live-event media presence, and artist development opportunity.

Through original photography, editorial features, artist promotion, magazine publications, performance opportunities, and entertainment partnerships, Kingship is creating opportunities for artists to gain exposure and connect with a wider audience.

Kingship Hip Hop Media is extending an invitation to recording labels, independent artists, promoters, concert venues, publishers, and entertainment partners interested in collaborating with its growing media and performance platform.
