Newsom Legal Services Enters Final Stages of Compensation Process for Eligible Investors

Newsom Legal Services Advances Legal and Administrative Coordination as HDM Holdings Group Moves Towards Completion of Investor Compensation Arrangements

New York City, New York Nov 9, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Newsom Legal Services is progressing towards the completion of its assigned legal and administrative responsibilities in connection with the compensation arrangements for eligible investors associated with HDM Holdings Group.

The firm's appointment forms part of HDM Holdings Group's broader efforts to coordinate the outstanding legal, corporate and administrative matters relating to the acquisition and proposed compensation distributions.

Compensation Process Reaches Advanced Stage

According to HDM Holdings Group, the compensation process has entered its final stages, with the remaining administrative, legal and compliance requirements being addressed in coordination with the relevant parties.

Newsom Legal Services is assisting with the coordination of outstanding documentation, investor eligibility records and the legal and administrative procedures required to advance the compensation arrangements towards completion.

The immediate priority is to ensure that all outstanding requirements are appropriately addressed, allowing the remaining stages of the process to proceed.

Legal Representation and Coordination

As the appointed legal representative for HDM Holdings Group in connection with this matter, Newsom Legal Services continues to assist with the relevant legal and administrative coordination.

Its responsibilities include maintaining communication with the parties involved, coordinating outstanding documentation and supporting the completion of the requirements within the scope of its appointment.

The firm will remain involved throughout the remaining stages, working alongside HDM Holdings Group and the relevant representatives as the process progresses.

Statement from HDM Holdings Group

Lindsay Anne Aaronson, Attorney and Company Secretary for HDM Holdings Group, commented:

"We are pleased with the progress made and that the compensation process has now reached an advanced stage. Our priority remains ensuring that all outstanding legal, administrative and compliance requirements are properly addressed.

"With Newsom Legal Services assisting with the legal coordination, we are continuing to work with the relevant parties towards completing the remaining requirements and bringing the process to its intended conclusion.

"We appreciate the patience and cooperation of eligible investors and will continue providing updates as further milestones are achieved."

Further Announcements

Further announcements are expected as the remaining requirements are addressed and subsequent milestones are confirmed.

Eligible investors will continue to receive relevant updates through the established communication channels as additional information becomes available.

HDM Holdings Group and Newsom Legal Services remain focused on coordinating the outstanding matters through to the conclusion of the process.
