

Already Lucky Feature Film Premiere September 21, 2018

Los Angeles, Sep 17, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Already Lucky, a feature Film, starring Trace Cyrus (Metro Station, Ashland High), Natalie Skyy (Son's of Anarchy), and newcomer Jake Red, is set to premiere at the Downtown Independent Theater Friday, September 21st, 2018.

Already Lucky is a modern day, millennial film, that tells an apt description focusing on how the youth view the current job market, relationships, and the very real, prominent concern of sexual harassment in the workforce.

“We couldn’t be more excited to produce an incredible film written and directed by Matthew Cassani. Trace Cyrus has showcased his ability to bring himself forward in front of the camera as well as behind the microphone and Jake Red is an amazing actor that not only helped the film, but we see a future star in the making.”

The film was Written and Directed by Matthew Cassani and is Produced by Cary Sandoval and Cary Sandoval Films.
