Visionaries and ULCC Host Webinar on African University Education

Academic and industry leaders gather online on November 28, 2026, to examine innovation, collaboration, and growth across African universities.

London, United Kingdom Nov 26, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Visionaries and the University Learning &

Collaboration Centre (ULCC) will host an international webinar titled "The Future of University Education in Africa" on Saturday, November 28, 2026, from 19:00 to 21:00 Central Africa Time (17:00 to 19:00 GMT). Held virtually via Google Meet, the free two-hour forum brings together university leaders, international scholars, and strategic partnership executives to discuss institutional innovation, cross-border collaboration, and emerging technologies in African higher education.

Universities across Africa and the global diaspora are navigating shifting educational demands, including digital transformation, research capacity, scholarship access, and graduate entrepreneurship. The upcoming discussion addresses how higher education institutions can modernize learning environments and build international alliances that prepare students for contemporary industry and research challenges.

The webinar panel features three speakers representing university governance, international academia, and global technology partnerships:

Dr. Divine Simbi-Ndhlukula serves as Chancellor of the Women's University in Africa and is widely recognized as a global icon in entrepreneurship, offering insights into institutional leadership and enterprise-driven education.

Professor Winston Mano, an academic at the University of Westminster in the United Kingdom and Co-Founder of The University Learning & Collaboration Centre, brings extensive expertise in international higher education, academic collaboration, and scholarship initiatives.

Dr. Tatenda Mujeni, affiliated with Harvard and Columbia and serving as Global Head of Strategic Partnerships at PeakPoint Health AI, contributes perspectives on artificial intelligence, cross-sector innovation, and global strategic alliances.

Attendance is free and open to university administrators, lecturers, researchers, students, policymakers, and members of the public worldwide. Advance registration is open online through Eventbrite at https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/the-future-of-university-education-in-africa-registration-2004580989702, where participants can reserve a spot and receive joining details for the live Google Meet session.
