Dubai, Sep 26, 2018 (IssueWire.com) - The same old games can get boring after a while. Are you looking for exciting new games that allow you to play with your buddies? Want to experience a colourful and smooth interface that gives you a Déjà vu feel like other legendary games but offers an edge over those games? Then Klikit Original is for you. The game is designed to entertain and distract you from mundane life for hours.

At first, it may seem like any other tiling game but as you continue to play, you will experience the broad spectrum it has to offer, in terms of newer levels, better challenges and overall user experience. It is a free app that you can connect with your Facebook account. Once done, your friends who are already using this app will get notified and you can challenge your friends to compete with you, which allows you a chance to rise in the game wide TOP 100.

Players can use Klikit coins for their journey through a perpetually expanding global multiplayer board. As a multiplayer game, it also gives you an option to play with random players from across the global community. Every level comes with a new challenge for an exciting gameplay. The one with the most number of coins will be the ultimate winner but wheel of fortune can change the score at the end, making the game an exhilarating play from start to end.

As we enter the Christmas and New Year Spirit, challenging games such as this one promise to deliver extreme excitement among the gamers who are looking to play a multiplayer game with friends which offers them an experience more glorious than a championship.

Klikit is a challenge game that can be played by simply tapping your fingers on the screen and offers a distinct gaming experience with its colourful styling, engaging puzzle pattern, including multiplayer games for Android, fun background music, and a chance to play against the players of your choice.

The newly launched Klikit Original breaks the monotony of multiplayer games by offering you a musical and intriguing tap game that makes it even more fun. These games will certainly appeal to those who are looking for fun challenging games that are mentally stimulating.
