

Nissi Online Casino Adds Microgaming Casino Games

New York, Sep 13, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - The popular Nissi Online Casino has recently announced the addition of exciting casino games developed by Microgaming. This partnership will bring slot games like Jurassic Park and Halloween to join the live casino action and table games already available at Nissi Online Casino.

Microgaming is an industry leader in the development of online casino software. The UK-based company has licensed some of the biggest franchises in the entertainment world in order to create online slot machines like Terminator 2 and Playboy Gold. Microgaming powers hundreds of online gaming venues, and the company has been honored with various industry awards including a Global Gaming Award for Digital Product 2016.

Nissi Online Casino is one of the most popular gaming destinations for players who like to wager with a computer, phone, or tablet. The casino offers a web-based playing experience in addition to apps for Android and iOS devices. Nissi Casino has also garnered praise for making live casino action a part of its gaming menu. Players can choose to play with a live dealer on games like baccarat, blackjack, and roulette. There are also many keno games and scratch tickets available.

Players are expected to appreciate the addition of Microgaming slots and table games to Nissi Online Casino. Both the casino and the game developer have achieved a strong reputation for fairness in gaming and reliable software. The games at this casino have a very realistic feel to them.

A big advantage of partnering with Microgaming is that the development company regularly introduces new slot games. Players are not forced to settle for the same old gaming fare. This helps to create a more fun environment in which players are encouraged to return for more gaming sessions.

The gaming software produced by Microgaming is also efficient and seamless. Players can count on the same experience whether they are playing the games online or on their phone. When coupled with the outstanding customer service provided by Nissi Online Casino, the partnership is a win for all online casino players.

It is expected that the first games from Microgaming could appear at the casino before the end of the year. They will join a fabulous lineup that already includes games like Blackbeard's Quest and SugarPop. There are also many exciting promotions available at Nissi Casino, rewarding players with free wagers and bonus money. The casino also accepts Bitcoin as a method of deposit.
