Dubai, Sep 25, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Recently, XXSIM – A Swiss developed telecommunications company has taken the roaming industry to new heights with its innovative mobile application, new packages, and affordable on-the-go data services. Sacha Christe (CEO) recently implemented the creation of flexible mobile and data packages for travelers and business travelers alike. “As a businessman, time is of essential and traveling plays a huge part of what I do. I personally use XXSIM whenever and wherever I go. It’s not only cost-efficient but the product itself also eliminates the hassle of having to change SIM cards and mobile number in every country I go to. With XXSIM, you can reach me both in my local & Swiss number wherever I am.”

XXSIM’s corporate clients have also expanded, with more fleets and GPD providers opting to go for XXSIM’s services. “We value our corporate clients as much as we value our regular users. What we really aim to create at XXSIM is a flexible service for both.” Sacha added. Both corporate and individual users enjoy free incoming calls in 150 countries and 85% cheaper rate on outgoing calls in 200 countries. With an XXSIM Card, you get a genuine Swiss, UK, or US national number allowing callers the added benefit of cheaper rates.

You can now get your XXSIM card for free with a purchase of EUR 50 credit or get 25% off with a purchase of an XXSIM worth EUR 32 (inclusive of EUR 25 credit). Data packages to Europe starts at EUR 0.15. Visit www.xxsim.com for more information.

XXSIM is an advocate of sustainability and supports the preservation of wildlife and the environment.
