Time: Noon to 8 p.m. (Detroit Diesel Power goes on at 5:30 p.m.)

Location: Ink'd Chronicles, 264 W 2nd St., Pomona, CA 91766

All ages and open to the public.

About Detroit Diesel Power

"Happy Hour in an album" - Binge Watchers Radio Show

"I wanna hear it again and again and again" - Iconici Radio

Detroit Diesel Power is an American rock & roll band featuring singer/bassist Regina Zernay, rhythm guitarist/singer Darren Roberts, lead guitarist Brian Wu, and drummer Danita Clark. The band mixes punk, rockabilly, and old school rock & roll for a wild ride that's always a good time. Influences include No Doubt, Blondie, Garbage, Green Day, Paramore, the Stray Cats, the Pretenders, and the Ramones. The band's latest EP, "Stupid Fun," is currently available on Spotify, iTunes, and Amazon.

Regina formed the band in 2013 after finishing tours playing bass for Cee Lo Green and Cowboy Mouth. Since then, Detroit Diesel Power has played throughout Los Angeles and surrounding areas, including the L.A. Coliseum (Peristyle), the House of Blues Sunset, the House of Blues Anaheim (opening for the Ataris), The Viper Room, Silverlake Lounge, the Double Down in Las Vegas, Tio Leo's in San Diego (opening for Red Elvises), the Only in Hollywood Festival, and live radio performances on KXLU 88.9's "LIVATION" (Los Angeles) and KXSC - USC Radio (Los Angeles). The band's debut EP, "16:16," has received airplay on radio stations across the country.
