

Franklin Wireless Collaboration with Qualcomm

San Diego, Oct 25, 2018 (IssueWire.com) - Franklin Wireless Corp. (OTCQB: FKWL), a market leader in smart tracking solutions, is excited to announce our collaboration with Qualcomm and the launch of Qualcomm's SDW1100 and SDW1200 based Smart Tracking Solutions. Franklin Wireless Smart Trackers, with the comprehensive PinTrac platform, provide a one-stop, turnkey tracking solution. The PinTrac platform was showcased this week at the Qualcomm Summit in Hong Kong from October 22-24.

"Franklin Wireless is delighted to announce our collaboration with Qualcomm on our smart tracking solution. This collaboration enables smart tracking devices anywhere to utilize LTE broadband networks and enables the customer more efficient and comfortable ways to track their valuable assets", stated OC Kim, president of Franklin Wireless.

This next generation of tracking solutions use Qualcomm's CAT1, CATM1 and NB-IoT capabilities and makes users no longer reliant on limited Bluetooth or Wi-Fi connections. The Franklin Wireless Smart Tracker solution includes the child, pet, asset, elderly as well as industrial tracking solutions and so forth.
