

Upcoming Indigenous Drama 'Goitaca' Enters Last Stages Of Post-Production

London, Oct 23, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Shot in the depths of the Brazilian Jungle, Rodrigo Rodrigues Studios announced 'Goitaca's entry into the last stages of post-production.

With Leandro Firmino visiting London last week to promote his upcoming movie, the studio announced its entry into post-production whilst shooting a promotional bonus clip in the heart of London at a cast reunion with the 'City of God' Star.

Goitaca is a tale, which thins the veil between the world we once knew of and the world only few have ever made contact with.

Based in an era where the spiritual world has a direct relationship with the tribes of this Earth, Goitaca consists of a cast inspired by ancient wisdom of indigenous tribes from a time lost a long time ago, inclusive of Shamans, Tribal Chiefs, Spiritual Warriors and mystical entities, their stories told in English, and fictional indigenous dialect on a new and exciting journey. "Despite the fantasy land Goitaca is based in, visual effects for the film have been kept to an absolute minimum. Therefore relying on the entrancing natural beauty of the Jungle and sets to create the magical atmosphere of which the story unravels itself within, however when it has been necessary and I'm very grateful to the people involved in it"(Adam Stocks, Richard Green, Manny Donaldson and Gilbert Canaan), says director Rodrigo Rodrigues.

Woven throughout the scenes is a soundtrack inspired by the sounds and music of the Peruvian Amazon jungle, created by Hebert Quinteros. The magic of the script and production is now being edited by Marc De Ver.

As we follow the protagonist Candea (Marlon Blue) as he goes through untold, supernatural and surreal jungle experiences on a wild journey of mystic encounters and perilous escapades which shape the directions of the tribes decisions and future we are introduced to a star spangled cast including the star of the Academy Award nominated film "City of God" Leandro Firmino (Little Ze) who plays an indigenous tribal leader. For the Brazilian soap opera addicts, the project also presents Brazilian soap legend Lady Francisco, Luciano Szafir, Christine Oliveira (Chocolat with Johnny Depp, Carla Mitchell from Eastenders), Macximo Bossimo, Helder Cardozo, Betto Marque, Olivia Harriet, Daniel Bauerfeldt, Joao Alberto Tchian, Marcos Accogli, Pedro Malta, Dionisio Correa, Fernanda Magnani, Danillo Sales, Evelyn Mayrink, Lucas Jordan, Victor Vasconcelos, Diogo Salles, Yago Brasil, Arthur Benatti Teixeira, Victoria Vasconcelos, Bradley Rodgers and Bruna Barbosa.j

With the hard work, dedication, inspiration and unparalleled visions of Director and creator of the project Rodrigo Rodrigues, together with the actors, crew and of course the help and guidance from the, "Spirits of the Jungle", Goitaca is a visually stunning and beautiful experience for the public, intertwined with a deeper message. A message to connect and resonate to the inner spiritual journey of the characters, as they endure their trials and tribulations to overcome the chaotic and violent life they once created, and understand that peace and harmonious existence is possible, once it has been found within oneself.

Official website: www.goitaca.co.uk

Media Contact

Goitaca

goitacafilm@gmail.com

London, England, United Kingdom

Source : Rodrigo Rodrigues Studios

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/upcoming-indigenous-drama-goitaca-enters-last-stages-of-post-production-1615115914778791>