

ATP's India Regional Division (I-ATP) set for fourth conference in New Delhi – 30 November 2018

Mumbai, Nov 26, 2018 (IssueWire.com) - The Association of Test Publishers, an international, non-profit organization representing providers of tests and assessment tools and services is pleased to announce plans and speakers for the second annual I-ATP conference, “Revamping Exam Standards in India: Improving Evaluation and Assessments of Higher Education and Professionals,” to be held 30 November 2018 at the Habitat Centre in New Delhi. This year’s conference is being hosted by I-ATP in academic partnership with ACT.

Keynote Speaker for this event is Dr. Bhushan Patwardhan, Vice Chairman, University Grants Commission (UGC). Dr. Patwardhan is a biomedical scientist who is Fellow of National Academy Sciences (India) and National Academy of Medical Sciences (India). He was Director, Interdisciplinary School of Health Sciences, at Savitribai Phule Pune University. He has been member of important national committees and policy making bodies including Taskforces of National Knowledge Commission, Planning Commission and consultant to the World Health Organization Geneva.

“We are looking forward to hearing from international speakers who will explore a number of relevant and current topics that are impacting higher education and its relationship to the workplace – from artificial intelligence to content development and algorithms. This will be a world-class event in terms of the expertise and cutting-edge information that will be presented, remarked ATP CEO William G. Harris, Ph.D.

“This forum is aimed at sharing global best practices in the assessment space addressing topics such as exam security, candidate convenience and flexibility and different ways to testing. The aim of ATP, globally is to promote and develop testing and assessment best practices and to facilitate an environment that would benefit test-takers, businesses, educational organizations, and society in general, said India ATP Chair, Divyalok Chetan Sharma, also the Senior Director, (Client Development), Pearson VUE

The one-day program on November 30th, which is a non-fee event for delegates, will present sessions and workshops from event sponsors including The College Board, Internet Testing Systems, MeritTrac, Pearson VUE, Prometric and OpenEyes Software Solutions, as well as speakers from the American National Standards Institute (ANSI), Vantage Labs and Delhi University.

Delegates will receive a Certificate of Completion at the conclusion of this one-day event.
