

Denver entrepreneur and single mom raises $25,000 for local charities as Ms. Denver 2018

Local entrepreneur and business woman Sarah Marie, announces her campaign to raise $25,000 for local charities and bring Denver-based businesses together as this year's Ms. Denver.

Denver, Nov 5, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Local entrepreneur and business woman Sarah Marie, announces her campaign to raise $25,000 for local charities and bring Denver-based businesses together as this year's Ms. Denver.

Sarah has started many businesses in the Denver area including The Studio, a co-working space for creative professionals located in Globeville and Centennial and currently runs her own marketing and branding agency, Sarah Marie Brands. In addition to being a serial entrepreneur, she is also a single mom to two kids, ages 10 and 7, a singer (hear her National Anthem demo here), philanthropist, fitness enthusiast and competitive golfer.

While representing the City of Denver, Sarah is seeking support from the community to raise funds for three local charities as well as a grant for a woman-owned business.

Charities Ms Denver is raising money for include:

The Humanity & Hope Foundation helps people overcome challenges and grow to become their best selves. They work hand-in-hand with people to get clean water, create jobs, and create access to education.

A Day Without Hate a student led a grassroots organization that promotes nonviolence, unity, and respect in our schools.

The Lion Project accelerates nonprofit growth by sharing their stories and creating experiences for others to join in their life-changing work. The Lion Project is supporting four amazing Mental Health charities this year. Mental illness is a factor in most suicides and is the most common cause of death for people aged 15 to 24.

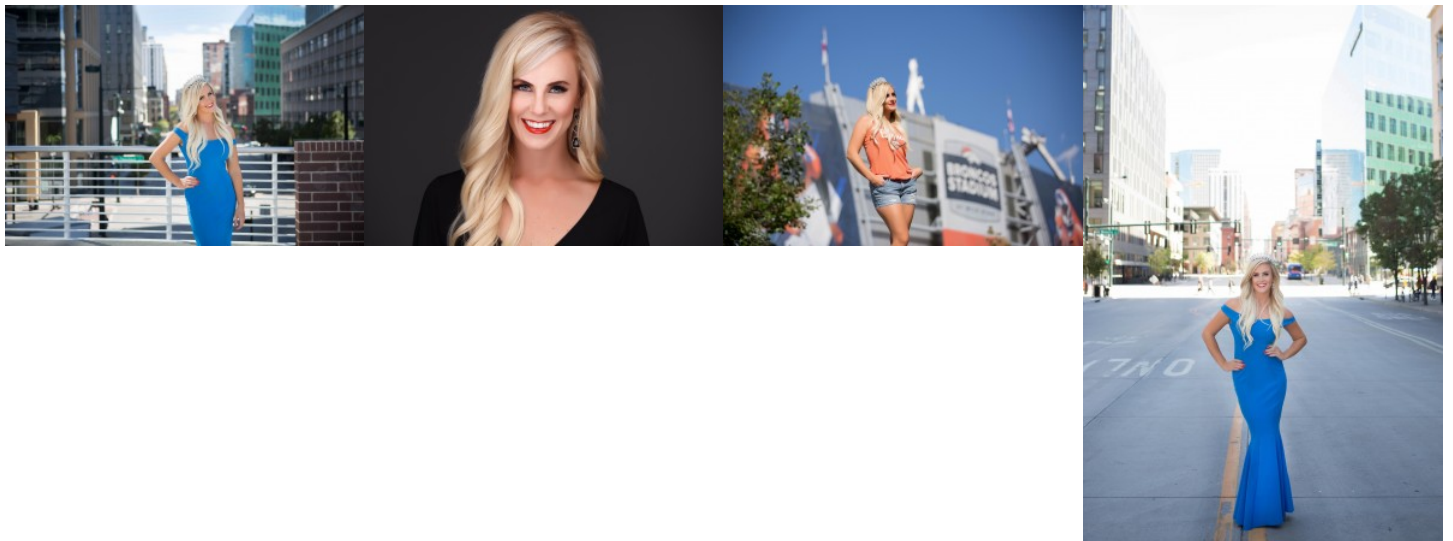

The Elle Academy Woman in Business Grant: Each year, The Elle Academy will award a deserving business owner with a grant to start and/or grow the business of their dreams and will include a year of coaching with Sarah Marie Brands.
