

INTERNATIONAL Online #PropertyExpo

Off-Plan, NEW + Key Ready Property DIRECT from Developers & Promoters

West Midlands, Nov 20, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - New + Direct is an online property exhibition dedicated to bringing together the very best off-plan, new and key ready projects from international developers & promoters and presenting them to investors & homebuyers through their simple, easy to use and transparent web portal.

New + Direct has been developed from a 'mobile first' strategy, through to desktop, resulting in a seamless user experience across all devices. Having made the decision not to allow advertising anywhere on the website the result is a premium, clean and uncluttered environment showcasing their vast choice of developments across Asia, Africa, Europe, North America, South America and Australia in the best possible way

Simple site sections and search options enhance user engagement and allow ease of movement around the site and better content discovery. Their focus is on giving investors and homebuyers the information they are looking and via various contact options, connecting them directly with the developer.

The portal is working hard ahead of their launch on 01.02.19 to become the go-to brand for investors & homebuyers looking for new property and investment opportunities worldwide and across multiple platforms: digital, online & social.
