

Luxeriva launches afro-textured hair extensions and clip-in extensions

Leading British human hair brand, Luxeriva, announces the addition of afro-textured hair extensions and clip-in extensions to its unique hair collection

London, Nov 29, 2018 (issuewire.com) - Luxeriva is a premium British hair extension brand that has become popular for its select, premium quality hair collection particularly catering to women's weave hair needs. As part of the company's goals of satisfying the needs of women that are looking to "get it right the first time,” Luxeriva has announced the introduction of clip-in extensions and afro-textured hair extensions to its hair collection, adding 4A-4C type textures Afro Curly and Afro Blow Out this week.

Luxeriva is quickly growing to become one of the most sought-after hair extension brands in the United Kingdom with its unique combination of character and quality distinguishing it from others in the market. The brand’s recent expansion into clip-in and afro hair extensions is a further reiteration of the company’s commitment to ensuring that all the needs of women as regards their hair is effectively catered to.

In addition to the new product range, Luxeriva also offers a wide range of premium Brazilian hair extensions via its online shop. The hair collections currently offered by the brand include hair bundles, lace closures, lace frontals and a host of other amazing collections. The brand also offers relevant tips and content on its blog, making it a one-stop shop for all hair needs.
