

Nailology – nature’s gift to all nail care needs

New concept for nail care needs, Nailology, announces its official launch, using nature to provide amazing nail treatments

London, Nov 29, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Nailology is a brand new concept in the world of beauty solutions, using amazing equipment and products to offer its customers in London the best possible treatments and ensuring that the nails get only the best possible care. The official launch of the Nailology studio on the bustling City Road offers an oasis of calm.

The nails are one of the most important parts of the body. Consequently, people tend to go the extra mile to ensure beautiful nails. Unfortunately, most nail salons have not been able to combine offering beautiful and healthy nails. This is where Nailology is looking to make a difference as it aims to become the best nail salon in London, offering quality, affordable, and healthy nail treatments including pedicure and manicure.

Nailology offers an amazing environment that allows customers to sit back, relax, and choose from over 500 high-quality nail colours and amazing products including dipping nails, gel nails, CND Shellac, Gelish Harmony, OPI, SNS dipping powder and Essie.

The salon offers a variety of treatments that include express manicures and signature treatments as well as quality natural detox products. Nailology's unique combination of comprehensiveness, affordability, and quality service delivery distinguishes from other nail treatment service providers in and around London.

More information about Nailology and the services offered can be found on their website.
