

Oomomo Unveils Its First Store In Toronto

We welcome you to Japanese living, bringing simplicity and fun into your busy lifestyle.

Markham, Nov 21, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Oomomo, an authentic Japanese lifestyle brand will be opening their first store in Ontario in December 2018. They started their first store in Alberta last year and was well received and quickly dominated the market. Therefore, Oomomo is undergoing a nationwide expansion across Canada, with two locations expected to open in Ontario. The upcoming store at Don Mills and Lawrence is undergoing renovations and is marked to open its doors on December 8th, 2018.

The Don Mills location is estimated to be 13,000 square feet, offering the most trending products which are true and tested in Japan over the past 20 years. Product offering includes Japanese ceramics, beauty products, Japanese snacks, stationery, cleaning supplies, kitchenware, organizer, gift wrapping supplies and much more.

Mr. Andy Cheng, the President of Oomomo recognizes that e-commerce is changing the playing field for the traditional brick and mortar retailers. According to Cheng, Oomomo is also stepping up to the game by offering products that are different, often better, alternatives to your lifestyle needs. "Our products will be your partner in life. Whether you are living on your own for the first time, or you're balancing a busy household, we will grow with you throughout your different stages of life". At the end of the day, we are introducing the art of simplicity and keeping up with our consumer's demands for quality, value proposition, uniqueness, and authentic imported goods as an essential part of their daily lives.

In addition, Oomomo imports products from various popular brands in Japan. Its goal is to enrich customer's shopping experience each and every time and stand out from the crowd with product differentiation. Even when you think you've got everything, come in for a surprise, you might find something you didn't think you need. Currently, Oomomo offers the largest selection of Japanese imported living essential products in Ontario.

About Oomomo

Oomomo is an authentic Japanese lifestyle retailer offering a different, often better alternative to your lifestyle needs. The products that are carried in the stores are currently trending and the most popular in Japan. For more information about Oomomo, please visit <http://www.oomomostore.com>.

About Creative Graphics Inc.

Creative Graphics Inc. (CGICA)., located in Ontario, Canada is considered as one of the leading branding and design company. Through a group of passionate and determined individuals with a vision and an unique blend of mixed experiences, we are able to turn your brand into brands everyone loves. For more information, please visit <http://www.cgica.com>.

Media Contact

Creative Graphics Inc.

annie@cgica.com

9054706080

25 Royal Crest, unit 202

Source : Oomomo

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/oomomo-unveils-its-first-store-in-toronto-1617770169552958>