

Rebel Gel signs new management agreement with Hellmut Wolf aka The Wolfman

Swedish Melodic Rockband REBEL GEL is now under new management with Hellmut Wolf, the director of Wolf Entertainment

Vastra Gotaland, Nov 12, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Hellmut Wolf, director of Wolf Entertainment said the following to this new arrangement with the Swedish Superstar Rock-band: "I have been working with Jon Groevle and his outfit REBEL GEL for 4-5 years now, as they are part of the Wolf Entertainment roster, and during that time, Jon and I became both friends as well as partners in the promotion of this wonderful band. I have been able to advise RG and I have witnessed their immense growth. Now I am very excited to work even closer with them as their manager, and we will use the new upcoming album to get the band heard in new markets and by new fans."

With 2 strong albums under their belt, Rebel Gel has passed the popularity of many internationally known bands and also gained the respect of many influential music-critics.

Rebel Gel has been played multiple times in Swedish, Norwegian and international radio.

They are signed by Australian based label Wolf Entertainment, and they are close to releasing their third full-length album.

Rebel Gel have released various music video's and their unique style of melodic hard rock has ensured they have many fans worldwide.

Rebel Gel is determined to keep their own unique style, which makes it hard to compare them with other famous bands. The best way to describe Rebel Gel is hard hitting melodic rock that will make you want to hear more.

After their second album "It Is a Sin" and their single of that album "Facebooked World", we are very excited to share the new album, which is planned to be released in spring 2019.
