

Prajakta's new love ballad in Bengali "KENO" creates timeless melody

Jodhpur, Dec 20, 2018 (Issuewire.com) - Prajakta Shukre's new Bengali track hit the internet on 16th December. The track is a love story that revolves around the era of 1971, starts with the scene from somewhere near Indo-Eastern Pakistan border. Within two days of the launch, the song has bagged one lakh+ views and still counting. It is considered to have quickest views amongst all the other tracks by Prajakta till date. The song is produced by "Be like Water LLP", directed by Rohit Shukre, composed by Shridhar Nagraj, penned by Amrita Talukder, and sung by none other than Prajakta herself

Singer and Performer Prajakta Shukre made her first appearance in the music industry with Indian Idol in 2005 and since then she has truly grown as a soulful singer with a melodious voice.

This was for the first time when Prajakta came up with a Bengali track and the love story in the video is elevated by the mellifluous tune and beautifully written lyrics. The song beautifully captures the love and emotion felt by a wife when her husband has to be away from home. Prajakta Shukre sings with such feeling it just makes you sigh and swoon!

Fans have been elated with her never-seen-before avatar, of a Bengali woman. They feel that the song transports you to an era of meaningful love ballads bring positive vibes as you listen.

Prajakta feels excited and exhilarated, as the song will soon become the most liked song till date. Sharing her excitement with mixed feelings on Instagram, she pays gratitude to her fans for everything. The song will definitely tug at your heartstrings instantly.

Prepared By- Bhupesh Advani

Contact- +919928315815

Media Contact

Bhupesh Advani Consultants

office.prwaale@gmail.com

Source : Prajakta Shukre

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/prajaktas-new-love-ballad-in-bengali-keno-creates-timeless-melody-1620392255284120>