

Arsenal FC has signed Jay Z's Ghanaian & American Producer pal, Elvis Darko as a Central Midfielder

Jay Z's Ghanaian-Swedish & American Producer buddy, Elvis Darko Has Been Offered A Professional Football Contract By English Side, Arsenal FC

Saint Albans, Jan 31, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Elvis Darko is a central midfield player who has been offered a professional football contract by the English side, Arsenal FC, according to ex Chelsea's ace Michael Essien and ex Assyriska midfielder Ibrahim Atiku.

Elvis said he could not meet Arsene Wenger and the management the date he was scheduled to meet them and that might harm his stay at the club. He was in Hollywood USA working on a movie project with Will Smith, Sylvester Stallone and Jay Z when he heard the news so he could not fly back to London for the meeting. Elvis also said that Jose Mourinho, Maurizio Sarri and Real Madrid's president Florentino Pérez Rodríguez have expressed interest in working with him.

But it was only Arsene Wenger who made it clear that he wanted him at the Emirates last year. Elvis Darko said Wenger believed in him and saw him as a great addition to the club.

He has had a few tête-à-tête with the new manager Unai Emery but it has not been about football.

So he thinks he might lose his spot at the club because of irregular contacts with the club. Arsenal's offer came very surprising and shocking to Elvis Darko. He never thought that he could make to the elite stages in football. He has said yes to the offer and he is waiting for Arsenal's response.

He also thanks Arsene Wenger, the new coach, Unai Emery and Arsenal football club for giving him such a great opportunity.
