

BinxAlibi Service Brings the Whole ALIBI Music Library to eSports

The all new BinxAlibi beta service is live! Delivering professional, white-listed, soundtracks for eSport Streamers interested in stepping up their game without fear of takedowns!

Castro Valley, Jan 28, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Binx.tv and [Alibi Music](http://Alibi Music) have come together to offer this innovative and exciting new Streamer service to all our members and the eSport streaming community all over the world. While Alibi has long offered Indie and Pro level service options, the all-new BinxAlibi service is specially designed for Streamers. With a special focus on immediate Youtube white-listing, BinxCoin awards and VOD rights included in every new subscription.

Binx.tv is a community with a laser focus on the networking and promotional success of our members. A focus that Alibi Music shares in their commitment to their own community of composers and audio creatives. Together, we are proud to bring this new BinxAlibi service forward with this initial beta offering.

“Robust audio options have always helped Streamers present higher and higher levels of professional streams to the web. Yet, there is a nagging fear of takedown or bans based on the use of copyright protected tracks,” says J. A. Ames, CEO of Binx.tv; “BinxAlibi steps into the breach and solves the problem. Ensuring that any service subscriber gets quality, stream-ready music options. Letting Streamers focus, exclusively, on their gaming, networking and brand building.”
