'Where We Started' was instrumentally created by Darence but he didn't realise the essence of the track. He wanted to create something that he can call as his own. He started composing a track based on his life events. It was Jolie who made changes to the track and both of them together created 'Where We Started' which was eventually turned into a video. And we are transported into the past to the very beginning to demonstrate how it all started.

The music video 'Where We Started' though being based on the electronic genre has soulful elements imbibed into the composition. The lyrics of the video perfectly suit the ambience of the song and Jolie was then one who added the soul to it. Darence kept the beat intertwined with soft melody creates a mesmerising soundscape. This emotional intensity put into the track can hardly be compared to any other creations. You can connect with Darence through his social media on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.
