

Globus names James Tobey as Chief Operating Officer

Globus continues its growth in construction, restoration and mechanical services by adding operational strength and excellence to its executive team

Dallas, Jan 3, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Globus, one of the largest full-service construction renovation companies in the southwest, announced the addition of James Tobey as Chief Operating Officer, effective January 1. With a background of leading manufacturing and service companies through significant growth and profitability, James will be responsible for guiding and overseeing the future direction of Globus.

“I am excited for the opportunity to lead Globus forward and develop best in class service and operations that are provided by the best team in the business.” James Tobey

Mr. Tobey is a graduate of the United States Military Academy, West Point, with a Bachelor of Science in Engineering and received his MBA in Finance, from the Wharton School of Business. He has been leading middle market companies over the past 25 years, and most recently as President of Action Fire Pros.

Globus President & CEO Jason Turner said, “James’ leadership and experience will help Globus deliver exceptional service and operational efficiency. I welcome his ideas and managerial experience as we scale for growth and excellence across single and multi-family renovation and restoration.”
