Going home for the New Year this year? A question from the depths of the soul. Everyone has a reason for everyone.

Li Ting (a pseudonym): "Do not return, because my brother is going to get married, I am going to be sold in Chinese New Year."

Like us in the service industry, when others are worried about the Spring Festival, I have no trouble at all. This year's Spring Festival schedule, I took the initiative to apply for 7 days of class, in order not to go home.

Parents and relatives called to help me to go back and said that I had already found a few good objects for me, and I also had an appointment to meet. Our family is in the countryside and not rich. My brother talked about a girlfriend, it is time to get married. However, because the woman's request for the gift of gold is not enough, I thought that after I got married, I would make a gift back and give my brother a marriage.

I heard that I was looking for three people, one is divorced from the village, with a little boy; one is to buy and sell in the next village, not at home all year round; and the other is a "nail house" with incomplete brain development and no daughter-in-law. The matchmakers said that the divorced man is more mature, the man who is doing business has the ability, and the remaining "not sensible" can be obedient.

In order to save my second half of life, in order not to be sold, I decided not to go home during the Spring Festival.

Li Bin (a pseudonym): "Don't dare to return, the bank card balance is only 2000"

In the third year of entering the workplace, it is even more confused now than the day of graduation. I have lost the enthusiasm and embarrassment of my graduation, but I have seen through the hidden rules of the workplace. Looking at the newly recruited interns in the group, they laughed at them from the beginning and took up their work. Now they envy them with hope for the future. I became a lifeless tool for life.

I don't know how to live in Shenzhen every month with a salary of 4,000 or so. I am 26 years old in 2019. I really don't know how to go home to face the parents' expectation and the various interrogations and concerns of relatives. Looking at the bank card spent 2,500, and then see the ticket back to Harbin. Desperate, turned 2300 to the family. WeChat said that we will not go back to the New Year this year.

When I grow up, I know that it is not easy to return to my hometown.

Wang Yuzhen (a pseudonym): "I got a call from the hospital, and then I have no home to return."

I spent a few months on the ticket and this year's year-end award, giving us two mothers and daughters a luxury 7-day Japanese tour. There are still three days when I am going to have a holiday, but I have received a phone call from the hospital. My mother has a heart attack and the rescue is invalid. My father left when I was 5 years old. In every Spring Festival after that, I saw a few pictures of others. I secretly vowed to take my mother to travel abroad during the Spring Festival. But now people are gone, there is home.

Seeing friends who are not willing to go home, I will seriously persuade them. I hope they can cherish the family, their parents, and pay attention to the most important reunion festival of the year.

There may be reasons for not going home, but there should be no reason to go home.

Everyone should feel that many young people are increasingly treating the Spring Festival as an ordinary holiday, just wanting to take a vacation and not wanting to go home for the New Year. Understandably, because some companies have less Spring Festival holidays than National Day. The advancement of the times, the changes in society, and the mentality of people are always variable. Many customs of the Chinese New Year are gradually forgotten and no longer valued. The Spring Festival seems to have become a ritual that lacks surprises and is no longer expected.

However, the advancement of the times has contributed a lot to the "yearly taste." Alipay's Jifu divides 100 million activities, watching TV programs WeChat shakes the lottery, and WeChat sends red packets, which is popular among every household. Our "yearly taste" is newer. Who said that when we are old, the WeChat red envelope is not the "old custom" in our eyes? WeChat red envelopes are issued, and we are surrounded by red packets. Every time we grab the least, we will continue to send, that is, nervous and exciting!

Perhaps, the taste of the year is not getting weaker, but you have grown up, but you have not found a way to open your own New Year.
