

Gretchen Rossi Partners with HBI Labs Inc on Beauty Lines

Gretchen Christine is excited to announce her latest partnership with HBI Labs Inc. in the formulation of their beauty lines DroxaDerm and FoliNu.

Newport Beach, Jan 20, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Gretchen Christine has announced a partnership with HBI Labs Inc to endorse the all-natural FoliNu Hair Accelerator and DroxaDerm product lines.

FoliNu is an all-natural formula designed to help men and women regrow thick, healthy hair in spots where aging has thinned. DroxaDerm is a line of products that are designed to help remove skin tags and provide men and women with healthier, younger looking skin.

Gretchen Christine Rossi is the Creative Director for The Gretchen Christine Collection, the collection is made up of stunning handbags, debuting the first line in 2009. Since then, Christine has grown the company into a well-respected fashion and beauty brand. Gretchen obtained a BA from Baylor University in Waco Texas and used that and her love of design to build a lucrative career in real estate and interior design.

After getting noticed in 2008 by Hollywood producers, Gretchen Christine was prompted to join the extremely popular NBC/Bravo television series, "The Real Housewives of Orange County." Gretchen embraced the offer and saw it as an opportunity to grow her business and delve into her passions of design and beauty.

Using the popularity of the show, Gretchen Christine harnessed the power and turned it into The Gretchen Christine Collection. Partnering with HBI Labs Inc is another step towards success for both parties. Gretchen Christine will be endorsing the beauty lines of HBI Labs Inc which include FoliNu Hair Accelerator and Droxaderm.

FoliNu unlocks the power of vitamins and minerals to help men and women regrow hair and regain confidence in themselves and their appearance. Gretchen Christine sees the power of such a perfect product and has signed on as the celebrity endorser.

DroxaDerm is another product that uses the power of all-natural vitamins and minerals to help men and women to remove skin tags and have beautiful, glowing skin. The success of this product and the good it does for people all around the world is what drew Gretchen Christine to the product. Together, Gretchen Christine and HBI Labs Inc will be working hard to help people regain confidence in their appearance and use that confidence to change their lives for the better.
