

Mansa the Legend is about to cause a heat wave with his new summer anthem 'No Love'

Melbourne, Jan 30, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Mansa the Legend has released his new single 'No love' which has a catchy hook with knocking 808's.

The story of No love depicts a girl who's materialistically in love with the idea of being self-dependent and not needing a man. Although self-dependence in most cases is a great quality to have, what she doesn't know is that she also has toxic traits which involve getting overly drunk every weekend.

With his last release topping over 100,000 streams on Spotify. It is anticipated that this track is going to blow up clubs all over.

No Love will be released 31st January on all digital platforms.
