

Popular Moroccan Reporter Simo Benbachir On His Interview with Rabbi Yoshiyahu Pinto

Los Angeles, Jan 24, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Simo Benbachir--known to his fans as their beloved 'SimoBB'-is best known for his charming and highly entertaining journalism work in the film and TV industry. He has interviewed the hottest stars on red carpets, charmed even closed-lip celebs into opening up about their personal lives, and is currently the only Moroccan journalist active in the world of Hollywood reporting.

It's not just Simo Benbachir's charming personality and dashing style that has earned him a place in people's hearts: it is his unique and distinctive interview style, which allows even the most stoic Hollywood star to relax and open up to share secrets, stories, and so much more. His tireless work in Hollywood even earned him the Moroccan Personality of the Year Award.

But it's not just in Hollywood where Simo's journalism can be found. Before he began working amidst the glitz and glam of Hollywood, he worked for various networks in Morocco, including the 2M Moroccan TV channel. It was his earlier work doing entertainment and media reporting in Morocco that helped him make the plunge to move to the bright lights and sights of Hollywood.

Recently, Simo Benbachir interviewed a unique individual unlike any he has interviewed before: Rabbi Yoshiyahu Pinto. Rabbi Yoshiyahu Pinto is a positive, warm individual who is well known for his intelligence, compassion, and his desire to do good in the world. He is perhaps one of the most well-known rabbis in the entire world, thanks to his tireless efforts to improve the lives of those around him.

Rabbi Yoshiyahu Pinto has roots in Morocco due to both his father and mother's heritage; he considers Morocco his motherland, and has a strong desire to not only teach his Moroccan students (countless of whom flock to him for his wisdom and insight) but to help Morocco by encouraging others to invest their money, time and technology into the Moroccan economy.

As Simo discovered in their interview, Rabbi Yoshiyahu Pinto has battled cancer since he was only 13 years old, and recently decided that he wanted to spend the rest of his life in his motherland, Morocco. He hopes that by living in Morocco, he can encourage some of the most influential people in the Jewish community that he knows to make the decision to invest in Moroccan innovation, technology and other aspects that will surely help the Moroccan people as a whole. He is also interested in reviving the Jewish community in Morocco, which has been on the decline.

Of the interview, which is set to be released soon, Simo Benbachir said: "I was honored to meet Rabbi Yoshiyahu Pinto who is a unique and a very special Rabbi who changed my life for good, the interview is very Positive & Reflexive... the time I spent with him is amazing and inspiring. I can never thank him enough for giving me the chance to be one of rare journalists to interview him. I feel so blessed to have this opportunity."

Media Contact

Simo Benbachir

simo@simobb.com

Source : Simo Benbachir

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/popular-moroccan-reporter-simo-benbachir-on-his-interview-with-rabbi-yoshiyahu-pinto-1623532553463534>