

Shiksha improvises JEE Main Rank Predictor to JEE Main 2019 Percentile and Rank Predictor

Shiksha's new improvised JEE Main 2019 Percentile and Rank Predictor to analyse actual/expected score & provide expected JEE Main percentile and rank.

New Delhi, Jan 10, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Shiksha.com, one of India's leading career and college selection website for students has come up with the improvised JEE Main 2019 Percentile and Rank Predictor as per newly constituted NTA norms to analyse actual/expected score of the JEE takers & provide expected JEE Main percentile and rank for this year at its portal for Engineering aspirants at <https://www.shiksha.com/b-tech/resources/jee-main-rank-predictor>.

The first NTA conducted JEE Main Exam for January has already started and over 1.8 lakh candidates appeared for the exam. The score is expected to be out on 30th January 2019. As announced by NTA, a new process for calculation of JEE Main score will take place from this year. The merit list will be based on percentile scores and not on raw marks secured by aspirants in the exam which will be the basis of the creation of final merit list for admissions to IITs.

Shiksha's JEE Main 2019 Percentile and Rank predictor uses past JEE Main Exam data to predict percentile and rank of JEE Main candidates in JEE Main 2019 \(January exam\). The newly improvised tool is a one-step process where candidates have to enter their JEE Main total score and as a result can get their expected percentile and rank to prepare for JEE Main 2019 JOSAA counselling. The students will also get a list of colleges based on their percentile and rank that he/she might be eligible for.

Mr Vivek Jain, Chief Business Officer, Shiksha.com says, "With the NTA introducing percentile system for the first time, there is a lot of confusion in the air about how exactly the percentile will be converted, what will be the relationship between score, percentile and rank etc. We are pleased to announce that our newly improvised predictor solves all these queries by taking into account the exact NTA guidelines, the score of previous JEE Main exams and various other factors. Besides this, our easy to use tool gives predicted percentile up to 4 decimal places along with cut-off details for over 3000 courses accepting JEE Main score which will help students to prepare for JEE Main 2019

JOSAA counselling. "
