

The Brilliant Rapper Bobby Jupiter Celebrates the Hip Hop Genre through his Latest Releases

When it comes to presenting creativity no one can beat the renowned rapper, Bobby Jupiter. His passionate music pieces display the hardships he has gone through.

District of Columbia, Dec 31, 1969 (IssueWire.com) - If you want a flavour of traditional music along with the touch of contemporary elements then you must check out the tracks of the hip-hop artist Bobby Jupiter. He always had a passion for music and this can be understood through his tracks. While perusing his music career in the late 80s he received major setback when the group he was a part of, decided to separate. But he returned to the music industry in the year 2011 and has released several hits after that. But it is his recent releases like 'Money Fault', 'Makin' Moves', 'Rock & Roll', and 'Swag Magnet' that got him trending among the audience.

Bobby Jupiter mainly focuses his tracks on the hip-hop genre. 'Swag Magnet' is a track that contains realism imbibed into it. Its intense lyricism makes it stand out most among all the four tracks. But when you listen to 'Rock & Roll', the ambience that vibes out from the song is completely different. This track is meant for celebrations and clubs. The drums and bass incorporated within the track are outstanding. 'Makin' Moves' has a captivating landscape which contains an element from other genres too and 'Money Fault' has beautiful music and a rhythmic flow to it.

Bobby Jupiter has taken influences from artist like Prince, 2pac, Geto Boys Al Green, Madonna, George Michael and many more. He has produced many singles with the help of producers like Michael Avon, Donny Traxx, Ruboy, KO, Craz Banga, etc. He connects with his fans through Instagram and Twitter.
