

While Checking the pulse of voter's mood, Janadhar India has set it right for General Elections 2019

With an increasing amount of competition in upcoming General Elections 2019, Janadhar India has started making its presence in Odisha, Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Haryana, Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Jharkhand, Rajasthan and Chhattisgarh.

New Delhi, Jan 31, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Janadhar India has deployed its team in various states to read the real pulse of voters! The team has got insights from over than 100 parliamentary constituencies across Odisha, Bihar, Jharkhand, Karnataka, Haryana, Andhra Pradesh, Chhattisgarh and Uttar Pradesh.

“We wish to help all sitting Member of Parliament, MLA or aspirant who want to fight upcoming General or Assembly Elections in 2019. A perception study carried out by our team in a field on more than 100 parliamentary constituencies. The analysis has been done on various parameters like the voter’s mood, issues, performance, voting behaviour and more. We are sure that these insights will help political parties, and candidates fighting upcoming elections to plan their campaign in the right direction.” Said Manish Jha, Founder and Political Consultant at Janadhar India.

The voter pulse study is done by 250 cadres (Janadhar volunteers) by visiting more than 100 parliamentary constituencies, covered key influencers, voters and key stakeholders from all segment of that particular area. Our analysis has all key parameters like the party’s performance, sitting candidate’s performance, competition analysis, voter’s pulse, major issues, incumbency factors, social media presence and many more.

“At Janadhar India, we always believe that the major challenge is to design your campaign after analysing what voters want to see and hear. We help politicians in reaching out all voters so that the voter gets the right communication.” Added Manish Jha.
