

Advanced Consulting Inc Calls On Every Investor For Major Atlantic City Project

Atlantic City, Feb 21, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Advanced Consulting, Inc. expects its new resort along the popular New Jersey Atlantic City Boardwalk will increase traffic by five million in 2019.

The company wants to develop a hotel/resort economic empowerment zone and business school in the area. Our entertainment, business & hotel structure will look to generate over 440 Million in revenue in 2019. We are looking for partners of all sizes to work with us from the smallest investor to the largest investor.

Lake said he has talked with some of the biggest investors who are limited in vision, they still only see a Casino options, they can't see beyond that, is a key reason Atlantic City never reaches her full potential they are stuck on a fast dollar without long term dedication, we see the long-term benefits of AC is the reason we are looking to work with investors of all sizes, great change starts with a new way of thinking.

Chief Executive Officer Gem Lake, with over 25 years of expertise has worked with numerous companies such as AT&T, Coca-Cola, Disney, Motown, Pierre Cardin, Radisson Hotels, Nabisco and others, has called on anyone who wants to make an investment to join on with him. We are looking for partners of all sizes to work with us from the smallest investor to the largest investor we believe opening the door for opportunity for all people is the real American way. Lake stressed it would be a great business decision as Atlantic City is a new frontier for a great opportunity.

He said plans are to bring a structure that focuses on the non-gaming elements of Atlantic City to solidify its position as a resort destination for the entire world, it's something very special about Atlantic City.

Lake says if Vegas can generate 70% of revenue from non-gambling without a beach and boardwalk then Atlantic City should be in a position to do incredible things with the right strategy let me repeat that the right strategy that plans, launches and maintains new options going forward. Anyone can do basic entertainment, but it takes a solid structure with a proven track record with years of expertise with credible results to merge multiple elements of excitement that includes entertainment as part of a much bigger plan.

Gem Lake has brought in Mr. Wonda, a 15-time Grammy-nominated and three-time Grammy-winning super producer www.wondamusic.com/wonda to help with the building of one of the biggest, highest sound quality music studios in the U.S. Wonda is regarded as one of the world's best music producers with a well-known music studio in New York City. He has produced for music greats such as Shakira, LL Cool J, Mary J. Blige, Justin Bieber, Carlos Santana, Beyonce, and many others.

He will also be handling our Atlantic City's concert series, bringing in the best acts in America and from around the world. Our first concert will look to attract over 200K people to the boardwalk with the biggest acts on the planet, we will make a statement like no other.

The Coastal Tech Hub is an innovative business structure designed to give the market more opportunities in the technology and small business development industries. Our Business School (University of Greatness) will teach business skills, how to open small businesses and have a successful career in marketing, entertainment, and technology. Our (1870 Brand) builds on the year the boardwalk was founded creating a stream of brands embodying the 1870 brand such as www.hotels1870.com along with many other brands to come with the 1870 name. The Coastal Tech Hub will look to open 330 new businesses in Atlantic City in 2019 as we build thousands of new businesses across America. Our structure will operate out of Atlantic City for the entire Country.

Charles Omar Sutton, the spokesperson for Advanced Consulting Inc. and a member of the infamous Sutton family, said the firm wants to bring unique restaurants and offer extraordinary entertainment experiences to the Atlantic City region – something that has never been seen on the Boardwalk before.

According to Sutton, the hotel will be an international attraction not seen in Atlantic City for quite some time. Sutton said using our collective resources with a business focus ensures the international world sees Atlantic City as the place to go in the U.S. He said Atlantic City has a bright future, so long as the market attains the tools it needs to bring back its foundation.
