

“Any Age” Suspense-Mystery Novel to be Featured at Book Festival

A group of investigators deciphers the mystery behind bizarre disappearance

Tucson, Feb 18, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Author Michael Silver's latest book, "Dying to Live: the Ultimate Mystery," captivates and covers new ground on detective fiction.

"This is my first "any age" book, and of course, it is a mystery. I hope solving it will be almost impossible until I allow it," shares the author to his readers.

The book, which will be featured at the Tucson Festival of Books (TFOB) this coming March 2-3, 2019, weaves an intricate tale of fates interconnected by a mysterious, unfortunate event. It follows the four disappearances at sea — all young adults — which escalates into a global search, alerting police forces all over the world. A string of suicides? A serial murder? The authorities are baffled.

Authors Press will exhibit "Dying to Live: the Ultimate Mystery" at the TFOB which will be held at the University of Arizona campus. Readers and festival-goers will have the chance to get an exclusive preview of the author's work at booth number 154.

The book is also available for purchase at Silver's website. Readers who will buy the book from the website will receive signed copies from the author. To get the latest update on authors, like and follow Authors Press on Facebook and Twitter.
