

Devoted Wife Debuts Motivational Biography on Her Husband's Family

Author writes about her in-laws' inspiring redemption of their family name

Vienna, Feb 7, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Touchstone by Linda Eatmon-Jones is an inspiring biography of the author's husband and how his family coped up with the KKK raids during the 1920s. This book won the 23rd Annual CIPA EVVY Merit award in 2017.

"A very warm and touching demonstration of how the life of one man can have an everlasting positive effect on so many people in seemingly wide-spread and unrelated worlds," comments Sylvia Turrell, Ph.D., a retired Professor Emeritus of the University of Lille from France.

The book draws out how a family's resilience and defiance to life's traumatic experience have built a legacy that will last for generations.
