New Rochelle, Feb 11, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Whether you are looking for a music piece that expresses how you feel about the special person in your life or searching for a track to set your mood to spice up your personal moments with your partner, listen to 'Finer' by Da Twin Prince. Already you know this Brooklyn native who has become the global favorite for his new wave Rhythm and Blues music. His 'Preparation and Practice' already created a sensation in different music streaming sites and overwhelmed with the popularity of this track, he is back with a bang. However, this time Da Twin Prince has something innovative for his fans. When it is the season of Valentine and all lovers are set to pour out their souls to their partner, nothing could be a better way to express yourself, but the intensely sensual single 'Finer'. You can tune to this single different music streaming platforms like iTunes, Amazon music, Soundcloud, Google play, tidal, Spotify and Pandora Radio.

It took years for Da Twin Prince to attain the stardom he is witnessing today. Though he showed some gestures since he was a little one but no one really thought that banging on pots and pans or his mumbling words would turn him into a singer-songwriter some day. The name Da Twin Prince is the word of mouth of every young and enthusiastic R&B and hip hop music lover in New York City. He has performed in the different happening venues and clubs and also given live performances in different music festivals.

When it comes to his new single 'Finer', artist Da Twin Prince has actually created the finest love single heard in a long time. The track is blended with a perfect balance between thoughtful lyrics and beautiful music score that all together created a new wave R&B sound. Yet again Da Twin Prince proves his unparallel singing skills in the track that will compel music lovers to play the track over and over again. Make your Valentine's Day special by listening to 'Finer' that will create the perfect romantic ambiance and make your moments way more memorable.
