

Fusion of Ambience and Soundscape of the Video '90 Baby' by H20daweatherman is Breathtaking

The latest video '90 Baby' by H20daweatherman is making the audience go crazy over its rap beats. There are poetry and motivation intertwined in the music video.

Sumter, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - The artist H20daweatherman can't be compared to your everyday hip-hop artists bringing in rap with celebratory themes. With a different kind of flow than most, he brings new vibes to the industry and his latest music video ''90 Baby' stands as a testament to his originality and creativity. Unlike many hip-hop artists, H20daweatherman doesn't rely on one theme or topic; rather focus on multiple themes bringing something new for his audience each time. The music video '90 Baby' is quite different from his last creation. It can clearly be described as a video of the self-establishment. With the flawless lyrics and captivating beats, there is no doubt that the artist focused in the hip-hop genre while creating this video. Though the subject matter has a laid back vibe the video has deep themes imbibed into it.

H20daweatherman who is otherwise known as Craig Weatherford kicks starts his video with a guy in the basketball field. As the video progresses you can find June 2nd in the video as well. The car symbolises status and power which everyone wants in their life. The artist displaying money showcase the financial status he has earned with his hard work and is about to use it as he likes. You can find that the artist keeps referring to the 90s making it special, for every individual born during this period. Phrases like 'at 25 bought my house' focuses on the achievement the artist has gained at such a young age. There is a light vibe thorough out the video '90 Baby'.

The music in the video '90 Baby' is creative, expressive and unique all at the same time. There is a fusion of crispy and gritty beats with an addictive melody that will keep you addicted from the beginning to the end. The vocal fragments and the unison of H20daweatherman and June 2nd is what bring the video to life. The rhythms synchronise with each other and there is plenty of artistry throughout the music video. The rapping, on the other hand, is carried out to the level of professionalism with flawless techniques. Some of H20daweatherman other creations are 'Feel my pain', 'Fisher-price', 'Sold Souls', 'Come to my party' and many more. You can easily find the artist on Soundcloud, Spotify, Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

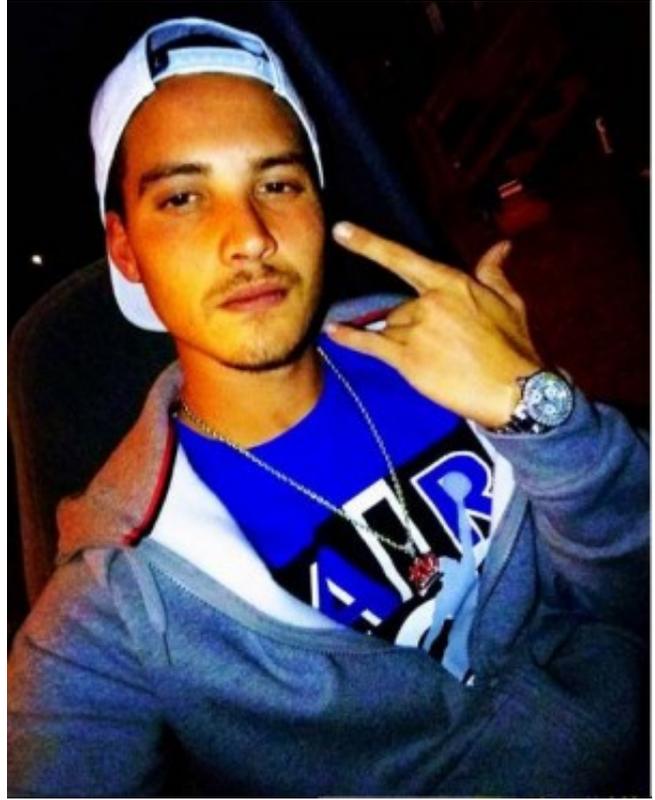

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=irtlm9u5N8k>

H20DAWEATHERMAN's social sites :

Twitter : <https://twitter.com/h20daweatherman>

Facebook : <https://www.facebook.com/daweatherman.weatherman>

Instagram : <https://www.instagram.com/h20daweatherman>

Media Contact

Music Promotion Club

info@musicpromotion.club

Source : H20DAWEATHERMAN

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/fusion-of-ambience-and-soundscape-of-the-video-90-baby-by-h20daweatherman-is-breathtaking-1624806028897896>