Gurgaon, Feb 14, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Aglasem.com, a one-stop-portal for students, now provides the latest updates and preparation material for entrance exams. Whether a student is appearing for medical, engineering, law or any other entrance examination, Aglasem.com provides information about the registration dates, National, state level entrance exams and admission updates, queries and latest news about schools exams, colleges and universities. Approximately, more than a million users visit the website on a daily basis to get important information about various national and state level exams. The portal was started in 2009 and aims to provide students of all levels free and authentic access to the latest information that will benefit students.

Balancing studies and keeping a track of the important dates is very difficult for students. Visiting different websites to get information about various examinations is overwhelming for students. Collecting information becomes easy for students when all the information is available on a single website. This is where Aglasem can be of great help. The portal designed exclusively for students helps them to keep a track of the important dates, eligibility criteria, documents required in a single portal. When all the essential information is available at one place it becomes easy for students as well as parents to keep a track of the important dates.

In addition to keeping a track of the important dates, students appearing for different examinations can also get access to previous year question papers. The question papers help students test themselves about their strengths and weaknesses by attempting the olympiads, mock entrance tests and much more. Students can also get access to unlimited pool of study material prepared by the experts exclusively for the entrance exams. The best part is all the information and mock test papers are available without any fee. With the free access to updated, students have the freedom to be aware and informed about the decision the need to make about their careers.
