

Get your cars serviced and inspected from the auto service in Randwick

Sydney, Feb 13, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Buying a car needs a hefty amount of investment. After enough savings or after getting financial security we buy a car of our own. Thus our cars are special as they are bought through our hard earned money. Also, while using a car it becomes important that we are careful about all the road rules and also the maintenance of our cars.

A car needs timely servicing to make sure that its life is long and various precautions can be taken through continuous checks against any kind of damage. A timely quality service provides you with maximum comfort and allows you to ignore any unexpected issues while driving it.

With Foxman auto services one gets the best car service. Be it a full car service that you're looking at or servicing particular parts of your car, Foxman auto services provide the best mechanical repairs in Randwick. The service providers of the company are highly equipped in servicing all the cars of leading companies

- Servicing BMWs
- Servicing Audi
- Servicing Mercedes
- Servicing Lexus
- Servicing Toyota
- Servicing Honda
- Servicing VW
- Servicing Volvo
- Servicing Subaru

The company follows the rules and methods of the car company's handbook and thus assures that the service provided matches and is customized according to the car.

The company has a standing of over 20 years and are one of the most trustworthy car servicing companies. They are qualified and also certified in car servicing.

Apart from servicing they also provide inspections of the cars that are necessary every year. They are certified for pink slip inspections and blue slip inspections. Pink slip inspections are done to make sure that it is fit to get registered. If the car passes the test it gets registered as fit to use for a year, this provides the owner with an assurance of safety while using the car. Other than that is blue slip inspection, this inspection is different from the pink slip one as in this inspection all the components of the car are checked. Though, if there are scenarios that your car does not pass a test then the company would suggest a number of repairs that would be necessary for you to get so that your car passes the test.

These inspections become necessary to assure that the car is roadworthy and safe to drive. Also, they are necessary while selling the car.

The company is completely authorized in giving you the pink slip and the blue slip.

Also, after the warranty and the free car service gets expired, the expenses of car service become a concern for the owner as it can be really expensive. At Foxman Auto service the company strives to provide the best prices to their customers.

They believe in up-front pricing where the price quote for each service is predetermined to ignore any hidden or faulty charges taken from their customers. For their years of experience and certification, they are one of the leading mechanical repairs companies in Randwick.
