Blazer Barboza receives Apple streaming award.

New York, Feb 12, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Fashion and hip hop has a strong connection and in this present day, you have the perfect person as an exemplary representative. Versatile hip hop artist, influencer and fashion icon Blazer Barboza are grabbing all the limelight this season as he has been complemented by the internationally reputed GQ magazine, based in NYC. Apart from being one of the initiators of the pop-punk genre, Blazer Barboza is highly admired for his fashion statement, especially his perky blazers. His style has also been compared to that of the former celebrity and fashion influencer Childish Gambino. Recently, he received the apple music awards for the most versatile artists and with the most streams. His music pieces of the album 'Energy' is recently trending.

Prince of fashion Blazer Barboza has also been parts of criticisms. In different interview platforms like Breakfast Club power 105.1, Fan pop, Heavy Hip hop etc. he was criticized yet nothing could affect his stardom. Blazer Barboza is one amongst the many American rappers who had made an immense contribution to the hip hop industry. Fans really look forward to his exclusive compositions and of course, he has become the idol for many fashion enthusiasts who think he is a game changer.
