

Hip-Hop Artist RealDiesel's Track 'If They Only Knew Pt. 3' is Rich in Musical and Lyrical Spectacle

California artist RealDiesel is redefining the lines of hip-hop with some of the most versatile, timeless, and insightful lyrics with 'If They Only Knew Pt. 3'.

Sacramento, Dec 31, 1969 (IssueWire.com) - The cultural enormity of music as the biggest cultural wave across geographic demarcations, race and political and social dissimilarity is an impetus that works towards making this world a better place. California based hip-hop artist RealDiesel is currently influencing his audience with collateral sound qualities along with some of the most virtuous lyrical fluencies of all time. He is an influencer himself but he has gathered bits and pieces of music's endless mastery and amalgamated his signature style into a flair of sorts. His newest single 'If They Only Knew Pt. 3' defines him as a musician with all the right qualities of audience acceptance.

RealDiesel has cultivated music extensively without constricting his styles to a definite genre. With hip-hop as the central idea, he incorporates subtle notes of R&B to create something that stands out in the crowd of similar music styles. But what makes his music so acceptable and lovable is his capacity as a lyricist writing spontaneous stories about global pledges, dilemmas, joy and more. He is a one-man army who constructs all his musical pieces from distorted fragmentations into a beautiful track all by himself.

Some of RealDiesel's other tracks like 'Believe' and 'Better Ways' came with positive reviews and a whole bigger fan base but with 'If They Only Knew Pt. 3', he attained a whole new measure of popularity. His impeccable passion for his work reflects beautifully in his tracks. To support this musical marriage of poetic and resonating exhibition, follow RealDiesel on Spotify, Facebook, and YouTube and make your musical senses experience that best of hip-hop.
