

Hip Hop Artist Twilight Zone is Making the Club Scene Dance to the Tunes of his Song ‘Beserkin’

Fort Worth, Dec 31, 1969 (IssueWire.com) - The perspectives of hip-hop are so diverse that it cannot be constricted to a certain strain of musical arrangement. Through the years of cultural evolution, hip-hop has changed and modified its statements and styles of expression in numerous forms. Twilight Zone is the newest addition to the global spectrum of the kind of hip-hop sound that compels the audience to shake a leg to his tracks. His newest release ‘Beserkin’ is your ideal Saturday night club anthem that is creating a heavy stir across borders. From its groovy beats to a lyrical flow of contemporary and relative themes, ‘Beserkin’ is a musical explosion in itself.

As a musician, Twilight Zone’s objective is to mesmerize the club-going young with his groovy numbers. Like ‘Beserkin’, he has previously dropped tracks like ‘Empathy’ and ‘Overheated’ that too come with that catchy essence of the new-wave hip-hop culture. Hailing from Texas, Twilight Zone has been an avid fan of Eastside Boys and Lil Jon who have inspired his sound in some ways. He is the prodigal son of creative affluences in the spectrum of hip-hop and his flairs are only getting more polished with time and experience.

Tony Torcher, popularly known as Twilight Zone is rapidly making his way into the top club chats. He is a visualizer of art and cultural appreciation and all the layers of music's vast compass. Working under the label name Flatline Cartel, he is creating many more dynamic tracks for his ever-expanding fans.
