

Michelle Einson, Psy.D, Pediatric Psychologist with STEPP

Get to know Pediatric Psychologist Dr. Michelle Einson, who serves the population of North Carolina.

New York, Feb 25, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Einson currently practices with her private practice STEPP where her services include individual and family therapy, marital counseling, and specialty treatments including biofeedback, hypnotherapy, and virtual reality. She holds expertise in chronic illness, bereavement and pain management. She focuses her care on pediatrics and treats those younger than 18.

STEPP differs from other, more traditional child therapists based on her extensive experience treating children with both medical and mental health issues and her specialization in pain management. The STEPP Program is one of the first in the Charlotte area to offer Concierge Care, which provides more personalized, holistic, and comprehensive treatment than what is typically provided in the community. She also provides specialized services including Biofeedback, Virtual Reality, and Hypnotherapy.

Dr. Einson graduated with her Doctorate in Psychology from Emory University in 2001, giving her nearly two decades of experience in her field. She is credentialed as a health service psychologist by the National Register of Health Service Psychologists.

Psychology is the science of behavior and mind, including conscious and unconscious phenomena, as well as feeling and thought. It is an academic discipline of immense scope and diverse interests that, when taken together, seek an understanding of the emergent properties of brains, and all the variety of epiphenomena they manifest. As a social science, it aims to understand individuals and groups by establishing general principles and researching specific cases.
