

Nurse Practitioner Mandy Littlefield, FNP-C who Provides Care for the Los Angeles, California Area

Get to know Nurse Practitioner Mandy Littlefield, who serves patients within Alane Park, MD and Queen of the Valley Hospital.

New York, Feb 19, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Mandy holds a Master of Science in Nursing from California State University. She is a Family Nurse Practitioner certified by the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, she also holds additional certification in Basic Life Support, Advanced Cardiac Life Support, and PICC Line Insertion and Management.

To stay up to date in her field Mandy remains a professional member of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners and the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses. She currently practices as a Nurse Practitioner with the private practice of Alane Park, MD and works in Interventional Radiology at Queen of the Valley Hospital, as well as with Nurses' PICC Line Services. She holds expertise in OB/GYN, Women's Health, Reproductive Issues, and Pre and Post Partum care.

Nurse Practitioners are registered nurses with specialized educational and clinical training in family practice. They have a higher degree of training in both the classroom and clinical setting than Registered Nurses (RN) do, although becoming an RN is a prerequisite.

Mandy's desire to attain a profession in the medical field has been influenced by family members in the same field. She attributes her professional success to her desire to work in medicine and help others, and the support she has received within the nursing community, family, and friends.
