

Senior Travel Announces 50% Discount on International Air Fares

You could save up to 50%

Chicago, Feb 28, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Senior travel announces 50% discount on international airfares

Senior Travel, a pioneer in travel portals exclusively catering to senior citizens, has announced that they will be charging about 50% discount for passengers who are seeking to travel internationally through their assistance. This would only be a provision if specific company policies have been adhered to.

Additionally, the team at Senior Travel also added that AARP members would also be privy to this offer, with a part of the sum being donated to the organization. Furthermore, passengers will also get a one-year membership to the senior travel club, which would give them exclusive access to myriad other saving offers on their international voyages.
