

Starr Magnet Entertainment Presents "Kno Sum" Tee-Nast and Niikki Kage Ft Heartface

Norfolk, Feb 15, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Two artists, from two controversial worlds, release a song in unity. And it is sure to take all walks of life by storm!

Artists, Tee-Nast, and Nikki Kage have released a unity conscious and boundary-breaking song, "Kno Sum" ft. Heartface.

Starr Magnet Entertainment Inc. is proud to present one of their signed artists, Tee-Nast's newest addition to his arsenal of hits. The controversial yet conscious song, "Kno Sum" is from an upcoming collaborative mixtape "Best of Both Worlds 2," with rapper Niikkii Kage. The mixtape is the duo's second project together. The dynamic duo have created many songs together that are lyrical candy to ones ears. But this single is another amazing story!

The single 'Kno Sum", highlights that everyone in urban neighborhoods are not affiliated. This is mostly due to gang relations. These two artists are from that exact environment. But what makes this song special, is the representation of two nationwide organizations are given a positive light. With the gritty delivery of Niikki Kage and the creative word play of Tee-Nast, it shows the pure genius of the two hip-hop purists from Newark and East Orange, New Jersey.

"Best of Both Worlds 2, is available on www.datpiff.com and The single "Kno Sum" is available on all digital platforms for streaming and downloads on February 15, 2019. Please visit the Starr Magnet Entertainment website as well.
