

Stayli Launches Free Business Document Templates Platform

Toronto, Feb 11, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Stayli helps businesses thrive with the launch of a website of templates for entrepreneurs. This platform gives them access to documents ranging from: agreement, pitch deck, business plan, cold e-mail samples, and an invoice generator web app at no cost. These resources are of high quality and can be customized to the entrepreneur's business needs.

Once in a while, an entrepreneur may need a specific document. It may be a free business plan template, agreement, pitch deck, business plan, cold e-mail. Rather than creating the document from scratch, they'll want to start with a blank template that can be customized. In most cases, searching Google will find them what they need. This can be both time consuming and frustrating. Why not start with a resource that is dedicated to providing templates for entrepreneurs right away?

Stayli's goal is to offer organized, easy to download, editable, printable business templates, to help entrepreneurs easily create the type of document desired. Their dedicated group of editors spends thousands of hours to select and organize, trying to save entrepreneurs both money and time. Stayli serves a large collection of forms, templates, and samples, involving business, life, personal finance, tax, and free legal documents online. These documents can be used for either personal affairs or business projects for free. Currently, numerous websites offer lots of free printable business documents templates. Most of them are of poor quality or unsuitable to the needs of businesses. Hence the decision to put together this collection of essential business documents. They handpicked and adapted all of these forms, templates, sample business letters and free online invoice generator to specifically suit the needs of small and home businesses.

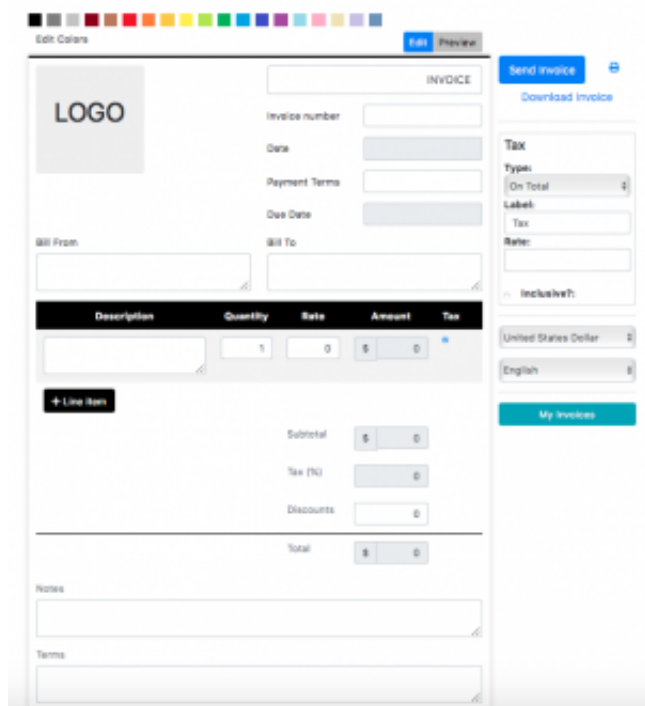

"These document templates are life savers. They have helped my growing business arrive where it is today. Their collection of high-quality files helps point me in the right direction. They are guaranteed to save entrepreneurs energy, time and money." - Noted David, a Stayli user.

Stayli set their sight on changing the way companies work with documents, specifically improving an organization's document work-flow to increase revenue. Too often, modern businesses still use dated processes because of habit or comfort. This wastes tremendous amounts of time and has a negative effect on their bottom line. Hence the decision to create and deliver a platform that empowers businesses to easily connect and transact with their customers through dynamic documents that build meaningful relationships and win more business.

The screenshot displays the Stayli invoice generator web app interface. At the top, there is a color selection bar and a 'Edit Colors' button. The main form is divided into several sections: a 'LOGO' placeholder, an 'INVOICE' header, and input fields for 'Invoice number', 'Date', 'Payment Terms', and 'Due Date'. Below these are 'Bill From' and 'Bill To' sections. A table with columns 'Description', 'Quantity', 'Rate', 'Amount', and 'Tax' is present, with a '+ New Item' button. To the right of the table are fields for 'Subtotal', 'Tax (%)', 'Discounts', and 'Total'. At the bottom, there are 'Notes' and 'Terms' sections. On the far right, there are buttons for 'Send Invoice' and 'Download Invoice', along with a 'Tax' section containing 'Type', 'Label', 'Rate', and 'Inclusive?' options, and a 'My Invoices' button.
