In June 2000, Dr Alan Faulkner joined his father's practice in Honolulu at Faulkner Eye Institute, and in July 2001 founded Aloha Laser Vision, LLC.

Dr Faulkner is certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology. The American Board of Ophthalmology is an independent, nonprofit organization responsible for certifying ophthalmologists (eye physicians and surgeons) in the United States. To stay up to date in his field he remains a professional member of the American Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgeons, International Society of Refractive Surgeons, and the Hawaii Ophthalmological Society. Additionally, he is a Founding Member of the American College of Ophthalmic Surgery and on the Alcon Refractive and Clinical Advisory Board. He has also been inducted as a Fellow of the American Academy of Ophthalmology.

Ophthalmology is a branch of medicine and surgery that deals with the anatomy, physiology and diseases of the eyeball and orbit. An ophthalmologist is a specialist in medical and surgical eye disease. Eye surgery, also known as ocular surgery, is surgery performed on the eye or its adnexa by an ophthalmologist. The eye is a fragile organ, and requires extreme care before, during, and after a surgical procedure. An ophthalmologist is responsible for selecting the appropriate surgical procedure for the individual patient and taking the necessary safety precautions.
