

An Experiential Journey into the Feminine – A Travel Program by Sacred Path

Buddhist pilgrimage sites Asia

Texas City, Mar 12, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Founded by Buddhist scholar, Justin Kelley, Sacred Path is a conscious travel company that offers custom itineraries and group programs through Asia.

Exploring the Himalayan regions of Tibet, Nepal, Bhutan, and India, as well as Southeast Asia, Sacred Path will take you to sacred religious sites throughout these countries. With each of their travel programs, they aim to create a transformative journey that explores the dynamism of the cultures and traditions that you contact.

One of the most powerful programs that Sacred Path is offering in 2019 is “An Experiential Journey into the Feminine”.

In association with Tergar International, this program takes you through the hearts of Nepal and Tibet exploring the feminine in Himalayan Buddhism. The program will be co-led by Tergar Instructors Antonia Sumbundu and Myoshin Kelley, and Sacred Path founder, Justin Kelley.

The itinerary emphasizes locations central to historical, archetypal and contemporary manifestations of the feminine within Himalayan Buddhism. Highlights include:

- An intimate space to reflect upon the power of the feminine both within our surroundings and experiences;
- Daily reflections by Tergar Instructors;
- Historical and philosophical context by Justin Kelley about the role of the feminine within the emergence and evolution of Himalayan Buddhism;
- Rare exposure to female practitioners and communities within the region; and
- Daily guided meditation sessions.

Additionally, this program incorporates diverse methods of interaction, teaching, and contemplation aimed at promoting transformation.
